

4-H Goes to College

Project and Activity Ideas

Here is a list of activities and ideas to consider during National 4-H Week and 4-H Goes to College.

- Promotional Projects

- Host an Ice cream social for club members and advertise for new members to attend
- Complete a promotional project in conjunction with a local 4-H club.
- Contact your University president about flying the 4-H flag during National 4-H Week
- Bake cookies for state office faculty as a way to thank them for their service.
- Bake cookies for various colleges on campus- example: College of Agriculture, to thank these colleges for their help as well as to promote the organization.
- Host a pizza party for club members and advertise for new members to attend.
- Have a professor speak at a club meeting about the importance of community service.
- Plan a community service project for your club
- Participate in National Service Day
- Recognizing club members. Honor Collegiate 4-H Members by having a club party. Invite community leaders, club leaders, or volunteers that have aided the club in their projects.
- Please submit your own ideas to the Collegiate 4-H Advocacy Team at c4hadvocacy06@googlegroups.com or to the Advocacy Team Liaison; April Mendenhall aprilmendenhall1@yahoo.com
